Lubna Qassim

INTERNATIONAL LAWYER · GEOECONOMIC STRATEGIST · FORMER SENIOR MULTILATERAL DIPLOMAT

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Lubna Qassim is an international lawyer, geoeconomic strategist and former senior multilateral diplomat whose career spans government, business and international institutions. Appointed Minister Plenipotentiary, First Degree, she served as the UAE's Deputy Permanent Representative to the United Nations and International Organizations in Geneva. She previously served as Senior Executive Vice President, Group Chief General Counsel and Group Company Secretary at Emirates NBD, becoming the bank's first female C-suite executive. She is a Distinguished Fellow at UCLA's Center for Middle East Development and serves on boards and advisory bodies across the United States, the Middle East and Europe.